O'MALIA'S LIVING: UP-AND-COMING OUTDOOR FURNITURE SPECIALTY
Local Business Named a Powerhouse Retailer by Casual Living Magazine

(Carmel, IN – August 26, 2019) – O'Malia's Living is a central Indiana-based custom outdoor furniture retailer, and has been serving the market for over 50 years, since 1966. The family-owned company is an official member of the International Casual Furnishings Association (ICFA), the leading trade organization for outdoor and casual furniture.

Casual Living, a well-renowned publication covering the casual and outdoor entertaining furnishings market, has recently recognized a select few casual furniture retailers as 2019 Powerhouse Retailers. O'Malia's Living has been awarded the highly-regarded title based on the company's role as a significant player within the casual and outdoor furniture market.

O'Malia's Living specializes in customization of outdoor furniture, featuring thousands of fabric and frame color options. The business is well-known and trusted within the community, with accessible and high-quality merchandise, in line with contemporary market trends. In a constantly-evolving industry, to create pieces that are stylish and innovative, O'Malia's' representatives visit various buying shows each year to identify key trends and emerging colors and patterns.

"We are grateful to Casual Living for recognizing O'Malia's as a key player in the casual and outdoor furnishings market. Having been serving Indiana for over half a century, we appreciate the opportunity to continuously provide quality furniture for local individuals and families. We look forward to future growth and thank all those who have supported our business thus far," states Scott Horvath, President of O'Malia's Living.

The company provides the ultimate showroom for value-oriented outdoor furniture, including leading brands such as OW Lee, Mellingers, and Tommy Bahama. O'Malia's' products bring families, friends, and neighbors together by providing outdoor living products and services which facilitate socialization within beautifully-created surroundings and atmosphere.
